

M9X & M9Y - Advanced Placement Statistics - Chapter 3

Graphing Numerical Data

September 4, 2019

Dear Students,

Please carefully study sections §1.4 (the part on dotplots) and §3.2 of your textbook. You should fully understand when is appropriate to use and how to construct each of the following types of graphs:

- dotplots
- stem-and-leaf displays
- comparative stem-and-leaf displays

Once you finish studying, proceed by answering problems: 1.20, 3.16, and 3.20

Your work should be uploaded electronically and not turned in by email or on paper.
