

For the last big assignment of the year, I want you to be as creative as you like.

Pick from any of the texts that we read throughout the year

And do something creative inspired by it.

Some ideas (that you are by no means limited to) :

- Draw a new book cover
- Make character aesthetics
- Make tik toks inspired by the characters/story
- Make a playlist inspired by the characters/the book itself
- A poetry collection
- Incorrect quotations

Due May 28

To go along with the creative aspect of the assignment, I want you to write a paragraph that explains why you did what you did - why were certain choices made, what they represent.

Then we can spend the last week or two of class sharing our final results :)
