

Homework for September 12-14

Vocabulary

Primary Source

Secondary Source

Unalienable

Self-evident

Endowed

Pursuit

Popular sovereignty

Justice

Union

Domestic

Insure

Defense

Welfare

Tranquility

Grammar

Your

You're

I'm

I've

That's

Complete sentences vs. run on sentences

Students must know the meaning and spelling of the vocabulary words above by Sept. 27th. They must understand the words and be able to use the words in context. Also, they must when it is appropriate to use the grammar words correctly in a complete sentence. All these have been taught in class, and students have notes. Students must not use run on sentences.

Monday - Find the attachment of the Preamble of the Constitution in Google Classroom. Answer the questions in the google doc and submit online via google classroom.

Tuesday - Begin working on the Lesson Practice Coach Fiction. (Will be posted on Google Classroom) Enter the answers on the Google Form provided

Wednesday - Finish working on the Lesson Practice Coach Fiction (Will be posted on Google Classroom) Enter the answers on the Google Form provided

Thursday - Answer the questions to the Declaration of Independence on the Google Doc provided and submit via Google Classroom

Friday - 1. Convince your parents that you have come from the future. 2. At dinner at some point this weekend, give a long, formal toast. 3. Laugh randomly for no reason for at least 2 minutes. 4. Only speak in song lyrics for a good 2 hours and see if anyone notices, or knows what you're talking about.