

Homework for October 3 - 7

Vocabulary:

Thesis
Central idea
Evidence
Support
Transition
Topic sentence
Introduction
Body
Conclusion
Elaboration
Varied sentences

Grammar: Proper use of Me and I

Examples:

Susy and I are going to the movies.
My teacher brought a candy for Susy and me.

Proper use of to vs. too

I have too many apples.
I have to buy some apples.

Capitalize all proper nouns

Monday - Watch and complete the tutorial posted on HMH: Revising for Unity, Coherence and Organization Tutorial

Tuesday - Complete the Level Up on HMH: Revising for Unity, Coherence, and Organization Practice

Wednesday - Teacher Planning Day No School - Watch and complete tutorial on HMH: Revising on a Sentence Level

Thursday - Complete Grammar Quick Fix on HMH: How to Correct Run-On Sentences

Friday - 1. Do the Hokey Pokey by yourself, with a friend, and with a small child. 2. Count how many songs you can recall by heart. 3. Tally them up and compare them to your friends. 4. Find a new vocabulary word that you know, for sure, no one in the class has ever heard. Make sure you know the definition and can use it in a sentence. Be ready to share it on Monday. Whomever has the best, most original, and most useful word WINS! Wins what? I don't know? What could you possibly win? My affection? An actual prize? You shall have to wait and see...

