

The Grandfather Paradox & Journal Writing “What if?”
Counts as the Time Machine Project Grade

Section D

Read the following:

<https://medium.com/the-parallax-view/the-grandfather-paradox-250a616f52c5>

We will read this article, apply it to the movie “The Time Machine.”

Next take out ten (10 sheets of blank paper, or one Good Notes new folder.

In class only you will choose 5 of the following individual (10) journal prompts.

Journal Prompts

Give all of them a try. Let your mind wander as you work through these prompts. Avoid single-sentence responses. Provide detailed answers and descriptions.

1. What if you suddenly came into possession of five million dollars cash?
2. What if you could choose a superpower? What would you choose and why? How would you use it?
3. What if there was world peace? What would the world look like?
4. What if you could go back to school and study anything you wanted?
5. What if you had an opportunity to travel to outer space?
6. What if you could change careers? You get to choose any profession and will be highly successful. What would you choose?
7. What if you could talk to animals?
8. What if you had a chance to travel anywhere in the world, but you had to visit one location for a whole year? Where would you go and why?
9. What if you woke up one day as a world (or local) leader? City mayor? State governor? President? Queen? What would you do for your community?
10. What if you wrote a wildly successful best-selling novel? What would it be about?