

To My Dearest 6th Graders:

We certainly have a lot for which to be grateful. I am especially grateful to have you all in my life. Your joy and excitement are refreshing. You make me look forward to the future! You remind me that, there is, in fact, much to look forward to.

I want to thank you for being patient with me. It has been hard adjusting to this role; but you all stand ready to lend a hand, and make me feel like “I got this” even though sometimes I don’t.

I want you to know that I’m really proud of you. I am seeing you get better and better at analyzing literature. You’re gaining a poetic eye, and starting “Get it!” You make me very proud.

I wish you all a wonderful and safe Thanksgiving, and I hope that you, too, take a minute to share with the people who are important in your lives how much you love them, and how thankful you are for them. This is important. Remember: Carpe Diem! Life is short. You need to always let the people you know that you notice the little things, and that you're thankful. I love you all dearly!

Love,
Ms. Briz
