

Young Writers invites you to write a spooky mini saga (a story told in 100 words). Can you include tension, suspense or atmosphere to your tale?

STUDENT INFORMATION

IDEAS & INSPIRATION

-  Use action, description or adventure to start your mini saga
-  Add a cliffhanger or a twist to your tale for a dramatic ending
-  You could briefly describe the weather to help create tension
-  You can be inspired by campfire stories or urban legends but make the story your own!
-  Create a list of spooky places & pick one as a setting for your story
-  What scares you? Use this as inspiration!

TOP TIPS

-  You can write a funny spooky story, it doesn't have to be scary!
-  Remember to check your word count – the limit is 100 words!
-  Make sure your mini saga has a beginning, a middle and an end
-  Use contractions to save words e.g. it is to it's or they are to they're
-  Avoid a long introduction
-  Don't have too many characters – there isn't room for lots of people in your story!
