My Family, My Community

Week 3

Essential Question: What makes families and communities special?

Reading Skills

SETTING

WHERE
Where does the story happen?

WHEN
When does the story take place?

Ask yourself, "Why is the setting important to the story?"

Ask and Answer Questions

When?

- Before reading
- During reading
- After reading

Why?

- To get information
- To help you understand the text
- To practice being "awake" and thinking while reading
- To be curious and wonder as you read

How?

Use question words to ASK: who what where why when how

Look around in the text and pictures for evidence, or details, to help you ANSWER.

Text Organization

Description

Informational texts have a structure, or type of organization, that fits the topic and the author's purpose.

Description is one kind of structure or organization. Authors choose description to tell details about what something is like.

Examples:

- It smells like...
- It sounds like...
- It acts like...
- It feels like...
- It looks like...

CONTENT-AREA WORDS

Informational texts often use words from science and social studies to tell about a topic.

How can I figure out what these words mean?

TITLE
