

Science Class News

November 27th - December 1st

Name: _____ Section: _____ Date: _____

Announcements & Reminders

- Homework is due on Monday, December 4th.
- Please place homework in yellow science folder.
- Sky Quiz next Tuesday, December 5th.
- Gravity & The Sky Test on December 11th.

This week in Science class

- Our little scientists have been busy learning about patterns in the sky! This week, we'll continue to focus on both the Day Sky and the Night Sky.
- Students will take a special nature walk where they will observe different objects in the sky using a fun and interactive app.
- Homework is to be completed and turned in on Monday, December 4th.

Science words to know

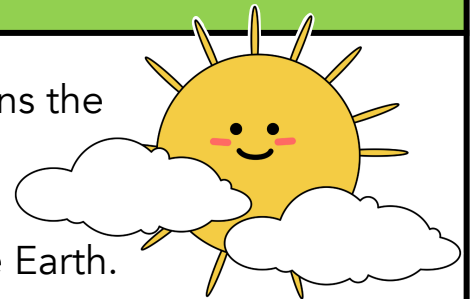

Pattern: A pattern is something that repeats. It happens the same way more than once.

Sun: A star at the center of our solar system.

Moon: The moon is a large rock that orbits around the Earth.

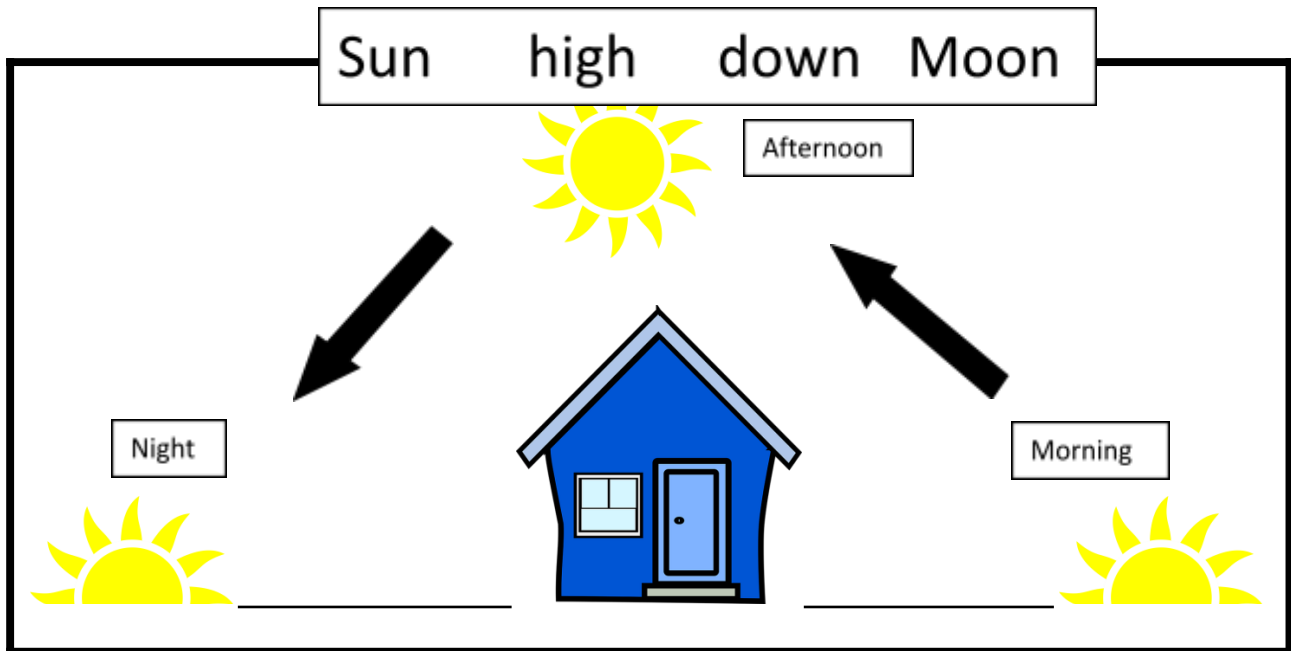

Daytime: When the Earth is turned towards the sun.

Nighttime: When Earth is facing away from the Sun.

Patterns in the Sky

Name: _____

- 1) The _____ comes up in the morning.
- 2) In the afternoon it is _____ in the sky.
- 3) At dinner time the sun starts to go _____.
- 4) When I go to bed the _____ shines bright.

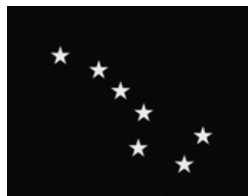

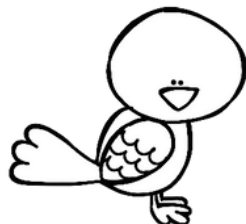

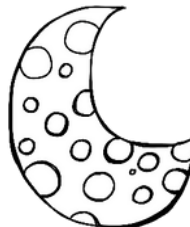

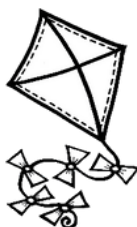

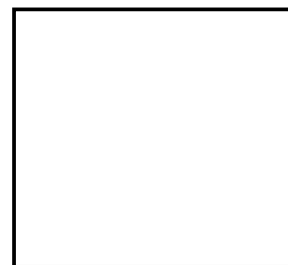

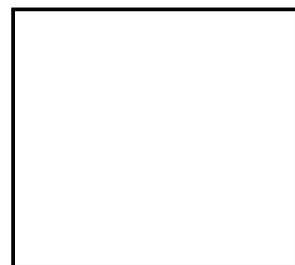

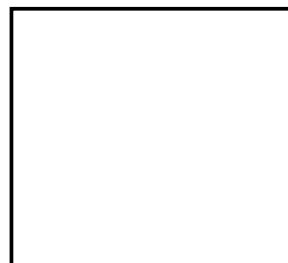

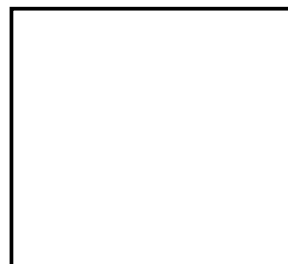

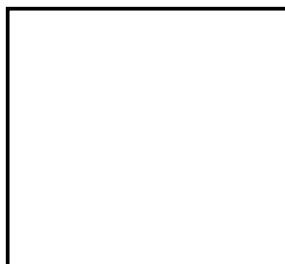

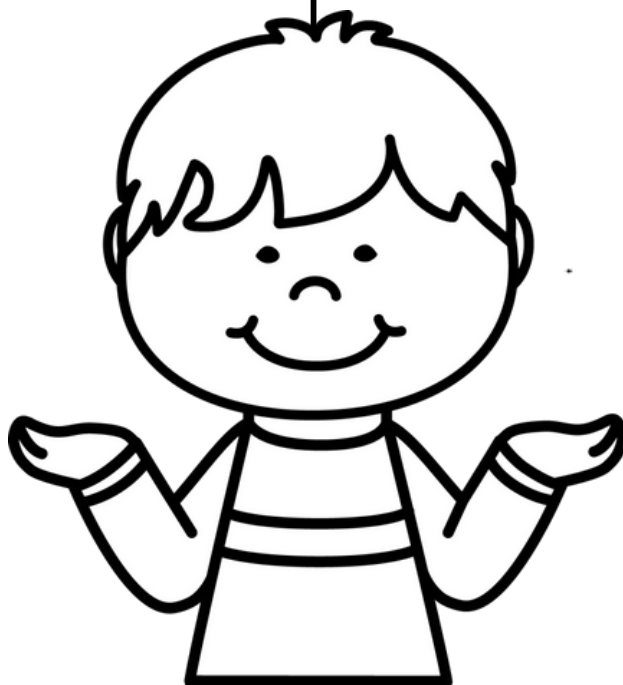

Name: _____

Directions: Cut and paste the pictures below the correct heading.

DAY AND NIGHT Sort

Day

Night

Day and Night Facts

Directions: Cut out the word cards below. Glue the word cards in the correct places in order to complete the sentences.

1. During the , we can see the sun.
2. At it is easier for us to see stars.
3. Nocturnal animals come out at .
4. The is our light source during the day.
5. The sun also gives us .
6. The gets its light from the sun.
7. The is sometimes visible during the day.
8. The sun is a .

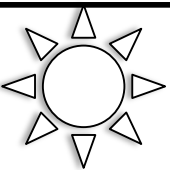

sun	night	moon	night
moon	star	heat	day

Name: _____

day and night

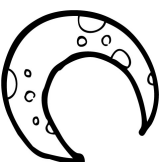

Draw a picture of something you do during the day and something you do at night. Then fill in the sentence.

day

During the day I _____

night

At night I _____
