SKILLS REVIEW

Character Perspective

A character's perspective is the way that character sees, thinks, or feels about something.

Hey, there's little Jack. I hope we can be friends.

Oh no! Mr. Giant is so BIG and scary!

- How do the characters view the other characters?
- How do the characters experience the events?
- How do the characters think and feel about the situation?
- It's a matter of perspective!

Figurative Language

Figurative Language creates a special effect or feeling or makes a point. This includes "figures of speech" that compare, exaggerate, or mean something different from what is expected.

Simile A comparison of two things using "like" or "as"
I'm happy as a clam!

Metaphor A comparison of two things by saying one thing is another thing
You must be a walking encyclopedia to know all those facts.

Personification Gives human qualities or characteristics to an animal or object
The moon follows me when I walk at night.

Alliteration A sound device used to repeat the same consonant sound at the beginning of nearby words
Susan Sally sent Susan some samples of soup.

Assonance A sound device used to repeat the same vowel sounds in nearby words
The cat ran past the man.

Sensory Language

Words that appeal to the five senses

The summer breeze smelled like fresh-cut grass.

THEME

The theme is the main message, lesson, or moral of the text.

The theme can be stated in text.

Fables and myths might tell the theme at the end.

The theme can be implied. Use text clues to figure it out.

- What happens to the characters?
- How do the characters react?
- What do the characters learn?
- How do the characters grow or change?

ASK: What is the author trying to teach me?

EXAMPLES

Be kind to others.

Friends are important.

Don't give up.
