HMH Module 5

Now You See It, Now You Don't

Week 1

Essential Question: Why do light and dark come and go?

Reading Skills

Diagrams are pictures with labels that tell what each part is.

Text Features

Authors choose text and graphic features to help explain ideas or to help readers locate information.

Text can be in different colors. The colors can mean something or just be for fun!

Text can be in different sizes. Bigger text is usually more important than smaller text.

Text Features

Authors choose text and graphic features to help explain ideas or to help readers locate information.

Curved text can wrap around the art or make reading more fun.

Make Inferences

When you make inferences, you use clues to make a smart guess about something the author doesn't tell you.

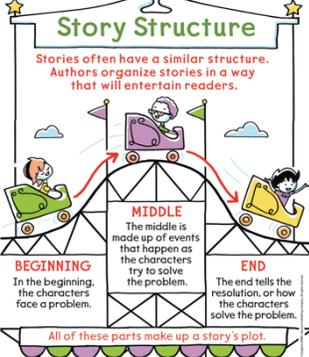

CLUES FROM THE TEXT AND PICTURES + CLUES FROM WHAT I ALREADY KNOW =

INFERENCE

Story Structure

Stories often have a similar structure. Authors organize stories in a way that will entertain readers.

BEGINNING
In the beginning, the characters face a problem.

MIDDLE
The middle is made up of events that happen as the characters try to solve the problem.

END
The end tells the resolution, or how the characters solve the problem.

All of these parts make up a story's plot.

Required Spelling Homework

Beginning this week, you will be required to complete and turn in your weekly spelling word practice.

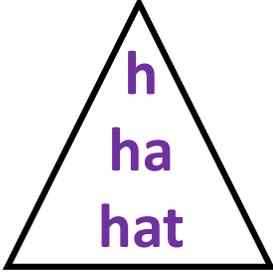

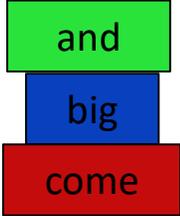

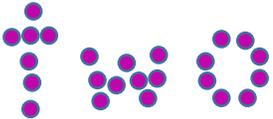

On the next page, you will find 15 choices of activities to practice your weekly spelling words. Please select one activity to complete on a separate piece of paper.

We recommend using 3 lined handwriting paper whenever possible to practice writing the words correctly to prepare for your spelling test.

Please attach your completed spelling homework to this homework packet before turning it in on Friday.

This will be a graded homework assignment.
