

Name: _____ Date: _____

Quiz p. 1-19
Sept. 13-Dec. 13

Love that Dog Quick Check

1. Why doesn't Jack want to write poetry at the beginning?
 - a. He doesn't like writing.
 - b. He thinks only girls write poetry.
 - c. He doesn't like doing what he is told.
 - d. He thinks poetry is too hard.
2. What question do you think Miss Stretchberry asks Jack about his "So much depends" poem (Oct 10th)?
 - a. What is the blue car?
 - b. Why does so much depend on a blue car?
 - c. Do you have a blue car?
 - d. Can you rewrite your poem?
3. On October 24th, Jack doesn't like the tiger poem, but he says, "Some of the tiger sounds are still in my ears like drums beat-beat-beating." What part of the poem is he talking about?
 - a. Rhyme
 - b. The short lines
 - c. Rhythm
 - d. The title
4. Why does Jack decide he likes small poems?
 - a. He likes not reading a lot.
 - b. He likes picturing all the small things.
 - c. He thinks small poems are less confusing.
 - d. He likes reading small words.
5. When Miss Stretchberry wants to share his poems, what does Jack say? How do you know? Would you let a teacher share your work? Why or why not?

Name: _____ Date: _____

Quiz p. 21-41
Jan 10-Mar 7

Love that Dog Quick Check

1. Where did Jack get his dog from?
 - a. A neighbor
 - b. A person who breeds dogs
 - c. An animal shelter
 - d. His grandparents
2. How does Jack's street compare to the city street he read about on February 15th?
 - a. His street is louder than the city street.
 - b. His street is quieter than the city street.
 - c. His street is less busy than the city street.
 - d. Both b & c.
3. What does the poet do with the apple poem that Jack really likes?
 - a. The poem is short.
 - b. The poem is shaped like an apple.
 - c. The poem helps Jack picture an apple using words.
 - d. The poem is about apple pie, Jack's favorite dessert.
4. How does Jack feel when everyone knows he wrote a poem?
 - a. Angry
 - b. Happy
 - c. Upset
 - d. Embarrassed
5. What does Jack want the "anonymous poet" in his class to know? Do you think this might help his classmate want to sign his or her name to their poem? Why or why not?
