

Five Questions: The Hipparchus Dialogue

In order to answer the following five questions, read pages 13–14 of “Socrates (Part 2)”, which can be found in Archie’s resources.

1. When asked by Socrates to explain what profit-loving is, his friend gave two definitions of what a profit-lover is.

- (i) What was the very first way that the friend had defined “profit-lover”?

- (ii) Why did Socrates believe that his friend had misdefined “profit-lover”?

2. After the first definition of “profit-lover” was convincingly refuted by Socrates, his friend proposed a second definition of “profit-lover”.

- (i) What was the second way that the friend had defined “profit-lover”?

- (ii) Why did Socrates believe that his friend once again had misdefined “profit-lover”?

3. According to the friend, what is the difference between a good person and a bad person?

Five Questions: The Hipparchus Dialogue

4. Socrates asked his friend to explain what profit is.

(i) According to the friend, what is profit?

(ii) Why did Socrates believe that his friend had misdefined “profit”?
Explain your answer in at least two complete sentences.

5. According to Socrates, who are profit-lovers? Only good people? Only bad people? Both good people and bad people? Neither good people nor bad people?
Explain your answer in at least two complete sentences.