

Write, at least, a paragraph focusing on one of the characters in the The Great Gatsby and how your perception of them is changing as you get more information. Use the language of the novel and mention how certain literary devices are used to elicit certain ideas about the character.

- Quote from the book (at least one from chapter 4 since that's the one we're currently looking at)
- An analysis of what you're quoting