

For Friday, September 17, read pages 62 - 80 of The House on Mango Street.

You'll start with the chapter titled "Elenita, Cards, Palm, Water" (page 62) and stop reading when you get to the chapter titled "Sally" (page 81).

All you have to do is read and we'll continue our discussion as usual.

Think about themes that are prevalent in the text and how they are being explored. Try and make connections based on the conversations we've had in class and how those ideas carry over into the rest of the book.

And have a great weekend :)

All the best,

Ms. Gomez
