

Find a pdf of the short story, “In Cuba I Was a German” under Resources.

Read it first on your own. As you read, make annotations on the passage

Use different colors/markers to keep track of the following:

- Words you don’t know
- Characters/Setting/Conflicts arising
- Essential quotes
- Literary devices
- Inferences/interpretations about what is or will go on in the text

Once done, upload your annotations here and be prepared for a discussion on the text and to compare it to what we discovered on Mango Street 😊
