Point of View

The narrator is the person who tells a story. Readers see the story events through the narrator's point of view.

A story written in first-person point of view has a character in the story as the narrator. Look for a narrator who uses the words I, me, or my.

A story written in third-person point of view has an outside narrator. The narrator uses the words he, she, or they. An outside narrator can tell about all the characters.
