

Questions: Intro to the Sages (Part 1: The Lists)

1. Which nine sages appear in only one list of the Seven Sages of Greece?

(i)

(ii)

(iii)

(iv)

(v)

(vi)

(vii)

(viii)

(ix)

2. Which seven sages appear in more than one list of the Seven Sages of Greece?

(i)

(ii)

(iii)

(iv)

(v)

(vi)

(vii)

3. According to Clement of Alexandria, six of the Seven Sages of Greece were the sages who are listed in more than two lists of the Seven Sages,¹ and the seventh sage was either Periander of Corinth, Anacharsis the Scythian, or Epimenides of Knossos. So, which sages are listed in more than two of the lists of the Seven Sages of Greece?

(i)

(ii)

(iii)

(iv)

(v)

(vi)

(vii) Periander of Corinth, Anacharsis the Scythian, or Epimenides of Knossos

4. According to some Ancient Greeks, there were only Five Sages of Greece (rather than Seven Sages of Greece). Who were the Five Sages of Greece?

(i)

(ii)

(iii)

(iv)

(v)

¹ According to Clement of Alexandria, the seventh sage was either Periander of Corinth, Anacharsis the Scythian, or Epimenides of Knossos.

5. Which four sages appear in every list of the Sages of Greece?

(i)

(ii)

(iii)