Essential Question: What do holidays and symbols tell about our country?

Reading Skills

Point of View

The narrator is the person who tells a story. Readers see the story events through the narrator's point of view.

WHO tells the story?

THIRD-PERSON NARRATOR	FIRST-PERSON NARRATOR
A person who is NOT in the book is telling it. Look for the words he, she, or they .	A person who is in the book is telling it. Look for the words I, me, or my .

EVALUATE

What is most important?

1. Think about the author's words as you read.
2. Then evaluate, or decide, what is most important.

★★★★

IDEAS and SUPPORT

When authors write to persuade, they want readers to do or believe something.

OPINION
What does the author think or feel?

I think...
I believe...
I feel...
... is the best ...

REASONS
What reasons support the opinion? Look for facts, or things that can be proved.

EXAMPLES
What examples or details tell more about the reasons?

Make Connections

When you read, find ways that the text is like things in your own life and other texts you have read.

It all starts here!

Text to Self	Text to Text	Text to World
This reminds me of when I...	This is like another book I read...	This is like something that happened in my community...
