

Axiology: Instrumental Value and Final Value

1. Money is used for buying merchandise.

(i) Which has the instrumental value: the money or the merchandise?

(ii) Which has the final value: the money or the merchandise?

2. Clay is used for making pottery

(i) Which has instrumental value: the clay or the pottery?

(ii) Which has final value: the clay or the pottery?

3. A fork is used for eating food.

(i) Which has instrumental value: the fork or the food?

(ii) Which has final value: the fork or the food?

4. What is something that you like to do for fun?

5. Think of something that you like to do for fun.

(i) Which has instrumental value: fun or what you do to have fun?

(ii) Which has final value: fun or what you do to have fun?