

Write “A” for agree or “D” for disagree depending on how you feel about the below statements, then explain why you feel that way...

1. Love at first sight is real
2. Feminism has changed attitudes toward women.
3. I would do just about anything for enough money.
4. Even though they say they love all their children the same, parents can't help having a "favorite" child.
5. Love is necessary for a successful marriage.
6. The best relationships are between two people who are equal to each other in intelligence and ambition.
7. In every relationship, there is always one person who is "in charge."

8. Being in love can make you change things about yourself.
---	--

- Write about any preconceived ideas you have in regards to Shakespeare :) Good, bad, or otherwise. Let's see what we think before diving into our play!