Point of View

The narrator is the person who tells a story. Readers see the story events through the narrator's point of view.

A story written in first-person point of view has a character in the story as the narrator. Look for a narrator who uses the words I, me, or my.

A story written in third-person point of view has an outside narrator. The narrator uses the words he, she, or they. An outside narrator can tell about all the characters.

Zach was asked to write about his favorite vacation. He chose to write about his family trip to San Diego and wants you to help him edit his paper. Read his paper and answer the questions that follow.

My Favorite Vacation

(1) When school got out last summer, my family and I took a trip to San Diego, California. (2) It was my first time to visit California, so I was excited! (3) The first stop on our trip was the zoo. (4) The San Diego zoo covers 100 acres in Balboa Park. (5) After spending an entire day there, we were exhausted. (6) We checked into our hotel downtown and ate dinner at the Rainforest Cafe.

(7) The next day, we went to one of San Diego's best Beaches named Mission Beach. (8) I had so much fun playing in the water and collecting shells. (9) There was also a long boardwalk with shops, restaurants, and an amusement park. (10) We got to see many different museums and important historical sites. (11) I learned a lot of interesting new facts at the Museum of Natural history, which is also located in Balboa Park. (12) My favorite part of the trip was the last day when my parents took me to an amusement park where everything was Lego-themed!

(12) We stayed in San Diego for an entire week, but it wasn't long enough. (13) There is so much to see and do in this sunny city. (14) I can't wait to go back one day!
