

Please, in one or two paragraphs answer the following question:

What is Locke's objection to an Absolute Monarchy?

1. Why can't, according to Locke, an absolute monarchy be considered a civil society?
2. Why is being in the state of nature better than being in a civil society?