

Board Work in Notebooks - Study Guide for Tuesday's Test (Oct. 29)

Copy the sentences in your notebooks. Skip lines in between each number and be neat. Next to each sentence write what types of Figurative language and rhetorical devices are used for each.

1. The most stressful and difficult moments in your life bring the most joy and fulfillment when you succeed and get past them.
2. She is so sigma!
3. He has as much rizz as Baby Gronk.
4. You can lead a horse to water, but you can't make him drink.
5. Work hard; play hard.
6. For your test, you need your notes, your packets, and your common sense.
7. I cook for you and clean for you and drive you everywhere and take care of you, and what do you do to repay me?

When finished complete HMH Growth Check - Due Friday.
