

Unit 8 - Homework 2: The Eleatic School

$$* \sim * \sim *$$

In order to answer the following question, read pages 36–45 and 51–60 in Unit 8.

1. Parmenides had three students. Who were they?
2. The Eleatic School of philosophy was Parmenides and two of his three students. Who were those two students of his?
3. Parmenides had one student who did not become a member of the Eleatic School. Who was that student?
4. Who were the three philosophers of the Eleatic School of philosophy?
5. Eleatic philosophy can be summed up in two sentences, because there were two main pillars of the Eleatic School of thought. What were those two beliefs? (Hint: They often were summarized in Ancient Greek as “ἐν εἶναι τὸ πᾶν” and “οὐδὲν ἐξ οὐδενός”.)
