

Unit 15 - Classwork 6: Plato's Lysis Dialogue

$$* \sim * \sim *$$

In order to answer the following questions, read pages 52–56 in Unit 15.

1. According to Lysis, can a good person and a bad person be friends? Why or why not? Explain.
2. According to Socrates, can bad people be friends with each other? Why or why not? Explain.

3. According to Socrates, can good people be friends with each other? Why or why not? Explain.
4. According to Lysis, can neutral people be friends with each other? Why or why not? Explain.
5. According to Socrates, what is the value of friendship? According to him, why would friends ever value their friendship with each other?