Chapter 12 - Assignment 5: Plato's First Alcibiades Dialogue (3)

~~*

In order to answer the following questions, see pages 21—24 of Chapter 12.

1. In order for someone to know what belongs to someone else, what must they first know?

2. In order for someone to know what their own belongings are, what must they first know?

3. According to Socrates, why is self-knowledge necessary for politics?

4. According to Socrates, which cardinal virtue is necessary for someone's happiness?

5. According to Socrates, what does a city's happiness require?

6. According to Socrates, if Alcibiades was to be happy, then which two cardinal virtues would Alcibiades have needed to have?

7. [For the previous question, make sure you named both virtues.]

8. According to Socrates, if someone is not virtuous, then who should be their leader?

9. According to Socrates, who should be slaves?

10. According to Socrates, what do virtue and vice have to do with freedom and slavery?