

Welcome to Sixth Grade

American Math

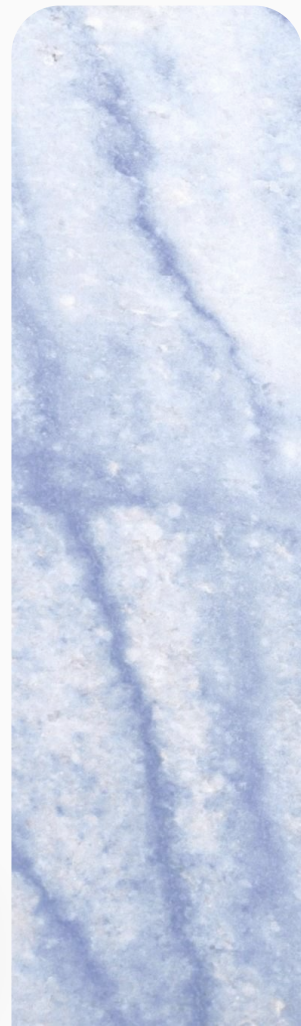

Ms. Wang

Contact

yuzhu.wang@archimedean.org

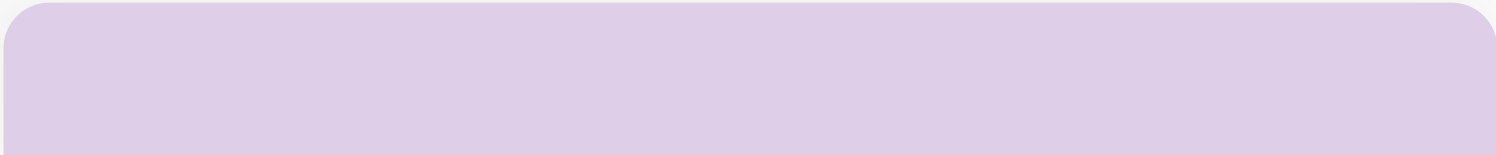

About me

- Education:
Bachelor's in Mathematics, University of Michigan
- Experience:
Tutored and competed in mathematics competitions across the country
- Favorite Quote:
"The essence of math is not to make simple things complicated, but to make complicated things simple." – Stan Gudder

Rules and Expectations

- Arrive on time
- No eating or drinking
 - Put water bottles & lunch boxes on the table when you come in
- Raise your hand when you need something
 - Include to talk & go to the restroom
- No cell phones/ ipads/ smart watches in class
- For safety, do not lean back in your chair

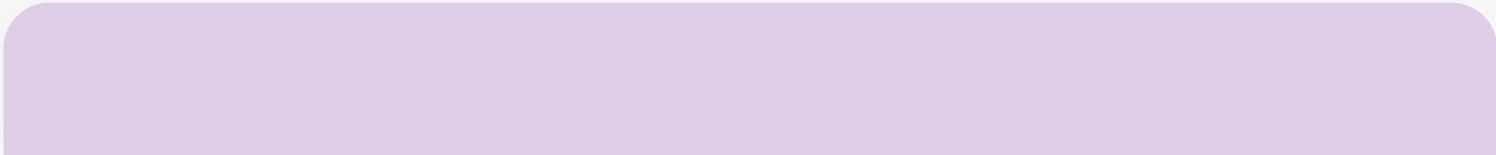

Consequences

- Academic Consequence For Cheating
 - YOU WILL RECEIVE A ZERO, PRINCIPAL AND PARENT WILL BE NOTIFIED
- Classroom Consequence for Misbehavior
 - three strike system
 - 1st time, write name on board
 - 2nd time, put a checkmark
 - 3rd time, lunch detention & parent contact (will lower weekly participation grade)
 - Lunch Detention
 - Parent Contact

Supplies

- Notebook & folder
 - BE SURE YOUR NAME AND SECTION IS ON IT
 - Classwork grade & notes
- Bookbag:
 - Folder-- keep it in your bookbag, always have paper in it
 - Pencil & eraser
 - iPads and charger
- Access to Email, Archie and Gradebook
 - Upload homework
 - Communicate via emails

Thank you

