Complete sentences vs. run on sentences

Students must know the meaning and spelling of the vocabulary words above by Sept. 8th (notebooks). Also, they must know when it is appropriate to use the grammar words correctly in a complete sentence. All these will be taught in class, and students will have notes. Students must not use run on sentences.

Homework for all students! Due on Wednesday

Friday is our Awards Ceremony. We will be visiting a nice venue and served a formal breakfast. Below is a website that discusses proper etiquette when dining.

Read the article found in the website below. Then answer the following questions below on a loose leaf sheet of paper to be submitted Wednesday morning (Thursday for 6D). You don't have to copy the questions, but you must answer in complete sentences. Spelling and grammar always count!

<https://www.kent.edu/career/dining-etiquette>

1. When is the correct time to begin eating your meal?
2. The waitress places the bread basket on a table seating 8 people. Juan and Susy both lean forward and grab for a piece of bread. What did Juan and Susy do wrong? Explain.
3. Juan takes a bite out of his bread. What did Juan do wrong? What should he have done?
4. Where should your napkin be placed while you eat? Where should it be placed when you are going to the bathroom and stepping away? Where should it be placed when you are finished?
5. If there is more than one fork, how do you know which one to use?
6. What are some tips provided in the article regarding actually eating and chewing?
7. In what Point of View is this article written? How do you know?
8. How does the graphic feature in the article better help the reader understand the content?
9. Do a google search for table etiquette and visit other websites. Try to find 3 new things that are NOT included in the article provided here.
10. According to the article provided, what is the purpose of using proper etiquette?
11. Do you think that there is a difference between eating at home and eating in a restaurant? Why or why not?
