

2 girls in a man war!

"Get down soldier"

"YES SARGE"

"you ain't gonna make it out at that pace son HURRY UP RECRUIT"

.The final frontier a war that all men and 2 women will remember. It was a foggy day where the people were inside and everyone was watching the TV and then suddenly the TV goes black and there is a message on the screen where there is a man standing with a microphone saying

" Code green, CODE GREEN EVERYONE STAY INSIDE."

Everyone watching tensely saying whats hapening there was kids crying people screaming and then silence, the loudest silence you wil ever hear. The continues

" ALL MEN SIT DOWN AND BUCKLE UP".

SILENCE again there was a chart of every day of the week and Grown men and women were crying now.Then they realized that chart was the offical military chart lottery pick and if you get picked your going. MORE UTTER SILENCE people were now on there knees praying and finally all the dates were picked the man said all the people picked from Ages 18 to 25 were going. It was was an exciting day for some and for others it was traic and horrible people were proud to serve there country others were happy because they weren't picked. Some people really wanted to get picked and that is where this story begins.

Both of the girls: What will you give us in return

Boy 1: I will give you 100,000$ upfront

Both girls: AGREED (drunkly)

The girls drunk at the time thinking easy money and that a couple laps won't hurt Until they meet there sargent.

They had 1 month to preperate and get ready but what they were getting ready for wasn't even half if what they trained for.

(Two weeks before military camp)

Sam: Megan do you think that guys was being serious about joining the military

Megan: That guy was bluffing. He was super drunk. This is easy just check if our names our under the regestired sheet.

Megan: I'm also pretty sure that if you haven't been selected then you can't go to war

Sam: Today there was an announcement that since people were hiding to not go to war that they are letting people sign up.

Megan: lets just check

Sam: sure

Narrator: they were both in Shock

Sam& Megan: NO way he signed as up as "Chris" and "julian".

Sam: we need to start getting ready for war now!

Megan: WHAT! I wanted chipotle

Sam: Same but we need to discipline our selves to get ready.

Megan: we also need to act like a guy or else we are going to be fined thousands.

Sam: I know, we have alot to worry about but first priorities

Both: Chipotle!

Both: Now we need to disipline our selves

Megan: You know I do have gym pass to planet fitness

Sam: OK i Guess we can go there until we can afford a private trainer.

Megan: I agree with you but we don't have to pay.

Sam : why?

Megan: My younger brother is a personal trainer

Megan: I can just ask my brother to train us.

Sam: Perfect ask

Megan: Thing is that he lives an hour away and also my planet fitness pass expires tommorow

Sam: Megan why didn't you tell me?

Megan: My stomach hurt after the chipotle

Sam: Just forget it, lets start going before it get to dark to drive.

Narrator: they both hopped in the car at 6:30 expecting a nice easy 1 hour drive.

Sam: Don't worry i'll drive just send me the address.

Megan: He lives in orlando

Sam: Thats not 1 hour away that like 4 or 5 hours.

Sam: Just..just..just forget it how hard can it even be

Narrator: That's where they messed up. They could have drove and stayed at Megan and brother's house but instead they went back to living their normal lives without a care in the world.

(2 weeks have passed and it completely went over their heads and this were the problems start happening. Out of nowhere the man that signed up in the military found their number.)

Sam: Hey Megan come over here. Look what happened.

Megan: What... what happened

Sam: Remember that boy we met at the party ,where he signed us up in the military

Megan: yeah why?

Sam: I just received of an unknown number telling us to go to this undisclosed location.

Megan: How do you know it's the boy if it's an unknown number?

Sam: I know because look at the profile picture.

Megan: what about it ? It could be any boy, we were drunk that night.

Sam: Ok fair point, but your forgetting that look at the background.

Megan: Ohhh. Are you saying that ...

Sam: yes that the background is us at the party sitting down.

Megan: And your telling me he wants us and only us to go to his location!

Sam: yep. You got that right.

Megan: So what's the plan?

Sam: Honestly I don't know what to do. At first my idea was to go to the location and hope for the best but now I need your opinion.

Megan: I agree let's head there now.

Sam: Wait! What came in from Chipotle is now about to come out.

(Random toilet noises).

Megan: (Grabs keys while screaming music) meet you in the drive way.
