Weekly Reading Skills

Elements of Poetry

Poetry can tell a story, describe a situation, or appeal to the senses.

Structure

- Line break → where each line of texts ends
- Stanza → a group of lines within a poem

Literary Devices

- Rhyming words → words with the same ending sounds at the end of lines or stanzas
- Rhythm → a pattern of stressed syllables that create a beat
- Imagery → words that create images that appeal to the senses
- Alliteration → the same sound or letter at the beginning of words or lines
- Onomatopoeia → a word that imitates the sound it represents, like ...buzz and THUD
- Repetition → lines or words that are repeated to stress importance

Figurative Language

Figurative Language includes “figures of speech” that compare, exaggerate, or mean something different from what is expected.

Simile A comparison of two things using “like” or “as”

I'm happy as a clam!

Metaphor A comparison of two things by saying one thing is another thing you must be a walking encyclopedia to know all those facts.

Hyperbole Exaggerations that make things sound bigger, better, or more than what they truly are

I waited for 100 years!

Idiom An expression that means something different from the meaning of its individual words

I feel sick as a dog.

TEXT FEATURES

present important parts of the story in a different way.

Punctuation, such as ellipses, em dashes, and colons, can indicate important text will follow.

Kinds of type can show emphasis or indicate a title.

Boldface
CAPITAL LETTERS
Italic Large small
Color

GRAPHIC FEATURES

are visuals, such as illustrations, diagrams, maps, and speech bubbles, that help explain ideas in the text.

ASK AND ANSWER

QUESTIONS

Asking and answering questions before, during, and after reading helps you

- make predictions.
- clarify things that might seem unclear.
- think more deeply about the text.

Grammar and Vocabulary

Vocabulary Strategy 2.7

Synonyms and Antonyms

A synonym is a word that means the same or almost the same as another word. One synonym can replace another in a sentence without changing the meaning, or without changing it very much.

An antonym is a word that is opposite in meaning to another word. Antonyms show how two things are different.

Identifying and understanding synonyms and antonyms can help you expand your vocabulary and better understand what you read.

Examples:

- 1 A synonym for big is large.
- 2 An antonym for big is small.
- 3 A synonym for noisy is _____.
- 4 An antonym for noisy is _____.

~ Plural Nouns ~

► Read the selection and answer each question.

The Mysterious Egg

The farm slept through the windy storm
all tucked away inside and warm,
while the roof shook and floorboards squeaked,
shutters banged and branches creaked.

⁵ The night was dark. The wind blew strong.
A little egg was blown along.
Small and silent, round and white,
it rolled up to the barn that night.

Bright sky, pink clouds, the rising sun,
¹⁰ Rooster called, "The morning's come."
But then he noticed things amiss.
He crowed, surprised, "Whose egg is this?"

The chickens cackled from their pens,
"If there's an egg, it's from us hens."
¹⁵ "Don't be so quick," said Goose and Duck.
"Perhaps that egg is mine," they clucked.

Cow yawned and stretched and rolled from bed.
"I might have lost an egg," she said.
Then Rooster crowed, "Whose egg are you?"
²⁰ The little egg gave not a clue.

The chickens ran to clean the roost.
"I'll dig up tasty slugs," said Goose,
while Duck fixed up a bed of reeds.
Cow polished, vacuumed, dusted, sneezed.

MONDAY AND TUESDAY

²⁵ Then all raced back to wait and see,
each wondering, "Will it look like me?"
Small and silent, round and white,
the egg held to its secret tight.

"I think the egg looks very goosey,"
³⁰ Goose declared. "I'll name it Lucy."
But Duck believed the shape so neat was just the space for two webbed feet.

The chickens fluttered in a snit.
"That egg says hen all over it."
³⁵ Cow, unsure of what to do,
said she thought she heard it moo.

They huddled up all close together.
No one moved beak, hoof, or feather.
Small and silent, round and white,
⁴⁰ that egg was watched all through the night.

Then clunk, then crunch, then crackle-crack.
Then wiggle, waggle, woggle, whack.
And then a snap—the eggshell spread.
Out popped a baby turtle's head.

⁴⁵ They clapped and hugged and named her Sue.
She loved her roost, and learned to moo.
She found those slugs the best to eat,
and thought her bed of reeds a treat.

The mystery's solved; the story's done.
⁵⁰ The egg belonged to everyone!

Recess! Oh, Recess!

By Darren Sardelli

2009

In this poem, the speaker shares their feelings about recess. As you read, take notes on the speaker's point of view about recess.

[1] Recess! Oh, Recess!
We love you! You rule!
You keep us away
from the teachers in school.

[5] Your swings are refreshing.¹
Your slides are the best.
You give us a break
from a really hard test.

Recess! Oh, Recess!
[10] We want you to know,
you're sweeter than syrup,
you're special like snow.
You don't assign² homework.
You make the day fun.

[15] You let us play kickball
and run in the sun.

Recess! Oh, Recess!
You're first on our list.
We'd be in despair³
[20] if you didn't exist.⁴
We're happy we have you.
You're awesome and cool.
Recess! Oh, Recess!
We love you! You rule!
