

2. Chaerephon asked Apollo about Socrates. (See pages 7–8.)

(i) What question did Chaerephon ask Apollo?

(ii) Speaking through the priestess, what did Apollo say about Socrates?

(iii) According to Xenophon's Apology, did Apollo say the same thing? Why or why not? Explain.

(iv) Hoping to prove Apollo wrong, Socrates sought out people who had a reputation for being wise. Yet whenever he found such a person, he concluded that they weren't wise at all.

(a) According to Socrates, why weren't they wise?

(b) According to Socrates, why was he wise?

4. According to Socrates, his human wisdom has hurt his reputation. (See pages 7–9.)

(i) According to Socrates, how did his reputation as a sage (or wise man) make certain people think that he was corrupting the youth?

(ii) According to Socrates, what are three unpopular things that philosophers had a reputation for doing? [This is an all-or-nothing question.]

- _____.
- _____.
- _____.

(iii) According to Socrates, why is he disliked by Anytus?

(iv) According to Socrates, why is he disliked by Lycon?

(v) According to Socrates, why is he disliked by Meletus?

5. According to Socrates, Meletus is unjust. Why did he think so? (See page 9.)