

Chapter 22 - Assignment 6: Plato's Apology Dialogue – [4]

~*~*~*~

Socrates explained why he did not fear being put to death. (See pages 12–14.)

1. According to Socrates, nobody who fears death is virtuous. Why'd he think so?
(Note: In order to make his point, he referenced two different cardinal virtues.)

2. According to Socrates, how might he have been wiser than everyone else?

3. According to Socrates, how was he like a gadfly?

4. According to Socrates, if he is punished, then why is that bad for everyone else?

5. According to Socrates, why did Plato and Aeschines want to be around him?
