Chapter 22 - Assignment 14: Plato's Philebus Dialogue — [5]

~~~*~

1. According to Socrates, what are the greatest pleasures? (See page 29.)

2. According to Socrates, how might an unhealthy body's pleasures be greater than an unhealthy body's pleasures? (See page 29.)

3. According to Protarchus, which Delphic Maxim has to do with which cardinal virtue? (See page 29.)

4. According to Protarchus, what makes someone imprudent/intemperate go crazy? (See page 29.)

5. According to Protarchus, why don't the greatest pleasures result from virtue? (See page 29.)

6. According to Socrates, what kind of pleasures are the mixed pleasures? (See page 29.)

7. According to Socrates, what kind of pleasures are the unmixed pleasures? (See page 29.)

8. According to Socrates, what kind of visually beautiful things are absolutely beautiful things? (See pages 29–30.)

9. According to Socrates, what kind of pleasure is true pleasure? (See page 30.)

10. According to Socrates, what kind of pleasure isn't true pleasure? (See page 30.)