

Chapter 25 - Assignment 9: Aristotle's Categories — [2]

~~~*~

1. Book 5 - (See pages 19–20.)

(i) According to Aristotle, what are the two distinct kinds of substances?

(ii) According to Aristotle, a genus and a species are which kind of substance?

(iii) According to Aristotle, is “cat” a genus? Why or why not? Explain.

(iv) According to Aristotle, is “this cat” a genus? Why or why not? Explain.

(v) According to Aristotle, why is “cat” more of a substance than “animal”?

2. Book 6 - (See pages 20–21.)

(i) According to Aristotle, what are the two different kinds of quantity?

(ii) According to Aristotle, what kind of quantity is a triangle?

(iii) According to Aristotle, what kind of quantity is the number three?

3. Book 7 - (See page 21.)

(i) According to Aristotle, why would the adjective “stronger” be a relative term?

(ii) According to Aristotle, why would the noun “owner” be a relative term?

(iii) According to Aristotle, why would the noun “brother” be a relative term?

(iv) According to Aristotle, why would the noun “husband” be a relative term?

(v) According to Aristotle, what would be the correlative of the noun “offspring”?

(vi) According to Aristotle, what would be the correlative of the noun “parent”?

(vii) According to Aristotle, why would the noun “teacher” be a relative term?

(viii) According to Aristotle, why would the noun “student” be a relative term?

(ix) According to Aristotle, what would be the correlative of the noun “student”?

(x) According to Aristotle, what would be the correlative of the noun “teacher”?

