

1. It was on one of these occasions that she walked (farther, further) than she realized.
2. He pushed his sleeve up (farther, further), revealing the bottom of his bicep with a partially visible tattoo.
3. Going that way will put us (farther, further) away from home.
4. He doesn't (flaunt, flout) his ownership of a private jet.
5. Places that tend to (flaunt, flout) the law are in risk of getting caught by the government.
6. Do you (flaunt, flout) the law?

7. I think we're going to _____ the game.(Loose/lose)
8. I'll need to _____ weight if I want to wear that dress.(Loose/lose)
9. I need to buy a purse for all my _____ change.(loose/lose)
10. Her dress was too _____ so she tried on a smaller size.(loose/lose)
11. My daughter has her first _____ tooth. (Loose/lose)

12. I have a special compartment in my handbag to make sure I don't _____ my car keys.
13. I do not agree with the _____ of that religion.(principal/principle)
14. The _____ of the school is retiring this year.(principal/principle)
15. Mary was the _____ in the television series for 10 years.(principal/principle)
16. Two _____ of happiness are being kind and smiling a lot.(principal/principle)
17. The ambassador refused on _____ to agree to the terms of the accord. (principal/principle)
18. The corporation's _____ was based in New York.(principal/principle)
19. I will go [To/Too] the store.
20. [To/Too] many people are here.
21. I hate it when I eat [To/Too] much.
22. I got all the victory royals, I guess you can say I'm [To/Too] good.
23. Fortnite memes are going [To/Too] die.
24. I'm [To/Too] nice sometimes.
25. People are going [To/Too] love this.
26. Let us go [To/Too] the park.
27. Let's go [Toward/Towards] the light.
28. I like to go [Toward/Towards] the lighthouse at night.
29. I went [Toward/Towards] the house and played games.
30. Don't go [Toward/Towards] strangers.
31. She moved [Toward/Towards] the enemy to attack.
32. He ran away [Toward/Towards] the escape pod.
33. Please (cite/sight/site) from the highlighted text.
34. What a beautiful (cite/sight/site) from the hotel we are getting.
35. For the HW assigned click on the (cite/sight/site) given to you online.
36. What a (cite/sight/site)!
37. As an Archeologist, I get to visit many Dinosaur (cites/sights/sites) from all over the world.

38. Please (cite/sight/site) from other resources.
39. There is a (cereal/serial) killer on the loose.
40. Get the (cereal/serial) from the cabinet
41. There is a (cereal/serial) number on the back of the box.
42. Do you want (cereal/serial) or ice cream.
43. (Cereal/Serial) killers are known for murdering people.
44. Lucky Charm is my favorite type of (cereal/serial).
45. She was standing between/among the house and garden.
46. The cabin is hidden between/among the trees.
47. I will be at the office between/among the hours of eight to six.
48. What are the differences between/among cats and lions?
49. There are a few Chinese speakers between/among the students.
50. The woman disappeared between/among the crowd.
51. Alex and Andy needed to assure/ensure/insure their home against earthquakes.
52. My brother double-checked the oven to assure/ensure/insure that it was off before going to school.
53. Sandra assured/ensured/insured Bobby that his presentation was great.
54. It is required by law to assure/ensure/insure your car.
55. I assure/ensure/insure you that I have been honest about the amount of money spent.
56. Using protective gear while playing a sport assures/ensures/insures that you will be safe.
57. I must _____ you on the new necklace, it goes well with your eye color.
58. Now that Peterson is here, we have a full _____ for our squad reunion.
59. The horn section _____ the vocals and guitar well in the middle stretch of that song.
60. Modesty is a virtue, but one should learn to accept a _____ graciously.
61. I added in some garlic to _____ the other seasonings in my vegetable dish.
62. You may say I'm stubborn, but I take that as a _____
63. In order to get good grade I must (cite/site/sight) in my essay.
64. 2-I work at the construction (cite/site/sight).
65. 3-The (cite/site/sight) from the mountain was beautiful
66. 3-I do not have very good eye (cite/site/sight).
67. 4-I have to (cite/site/sight) for my book review.
68. 5-My eye (cite/site/sight) is deteriorating.
69. 6-This is the (cite/site/sight) of the murder.
70. 1-My favorite breakfast is (cereal/serial).
71. 2-We need to find the (cereal/serial) killer.
72. 3-He is writing a (cereal/serial) novel that will have three sequels.
73. 4-She writes a (cereal/serial) number on all of her papers to make them easy to organize.
74. 5-The farmer grows mostly (cereal/serial) grains like barley and rye.
75. 6-Each new product is given a (cereal/serial) number to identify it
76. It was the worst (defense, defence) he could have used.
77. Her (defense, defence) was weak and inapt but she attained her object.
78. Attack is the best form of (defense, defence).

79. The land was flat, giving no scope for (defense, defence).
80. When did you (immigrate, emigrate) to our country?
81. Many Mexicans illegally (immigrate, emigrate) into the U.S. from Mexico.
82. They planned to (immigrate, emigrate) to Finland next.
83. They had no choice but to (immigrate, emigrate) from their homeland
84. They are going to (immigrate, emigrate) to America.
85. They are going to (immigrate, emigrate) to the United States.

86. The man took his last breath/breathe before being shot.
87. 2) Mariane's chest was very tight so it was difficult for her to breathe/breathe deeply.
88. 3) Camila caught her breath/breathe as she woke up from her deep sleep.
89. They decided to move the capitol/capital to Washington DC.
90. The multitude of state legislatures would meet at the capitol/capital .
91. 3) On the capitol/capital grounds there is a state capitol/capital .
92. Clarice made a social (gaffe/gaff) when she wore jeans to a formal event.
93. The blogger made a (gaffe/gaff) when he referred to the football player by another athlete's name.
94. Hanging the (gaffe/gaff) down can spill the wind out of the sail.
95. Captain Dang successfully hooked the (gaffe/gaff) deep into its tail and managed to get the tail up to level of the deck.
96. After the actress tripped over her dress, she realized millions of people had seen her (gaffe/gaff).
97. A quick, well-aimed move with the (gaffe/gaff), and 54 inches of hammered chrome and green came over the side.
98. After her grandmother died, Abigail's friends expressed their deepest (sympathy/empathy) for her loss in the form of flowers, cards, and comfort food.
99. Bill has a hard time forming healthy relationships because he lacks (sympathy/empathy) for others.
100. After her breakup, Janet's friends tried to ply her with sad looks and by insulting her ex's new girlfriend, but she did not want their (sympathy/empathy).
101. Because her parents immigrated to the United States to give her a better life, Maria has (sympathy/empathy) for illegal aliens.
102. Because Gwen has a strong sense of (sympathy/empathy), she will be a very effective marriage counselor.
103. He won't get any (sympathy/empathy) from me.
104. The man shouted "This is clearly a (breach/breach) of the treaty" out loud in court.
105. The ammunition couldn't fit over the cannons (breach/breach), so the soldier took out his rifle
106. There was a (breach/breach) in Ryan's wall and no one was available to fix it.
107. The Doctor said the man had a bone broken located near his (breach/breach).
108. I can't see why anyone wants to (breach/breach) into our boss's computer.

109. The Captain asked if anyone can fix the (breach/breech) of the gun.
110. In general, the company will charge based on the size, location and type of property they will (appraise/apprise) .
111. She walked around the side of the house to (appraise/apprise) the damage.
112. The new reporter was (appraise/apprise) of developments in this story.
113. It had been seen by students who were well-(appraise/apprise) of the reviewers' visit.
114. The woman relaxed somewhat and lifted her face to (appraise/apprise) Jackson.
115. I'm grateful to my cousin for taking the time to (appraise/apprise) me of our grandmother's illness.
116. She ___ us that everything would turn out all right. (assure)
117. Trumpcare has done little to ___ us. (insure)
118. This contract ___ the company's profit this month. (assure)
119. This letter will ___ you a hearing. (ensure)
120. There were measures to ___ the success of a takeover. (ensure)
121. Using our right to free speech is the only way to ___ that we will be heard. (ensure)
122. He took a deep ___. (breath)
123. His ___ smelled of liquor. (breath)
124. She caught her ___ and swung at him. (breath)
125. Her chest was too tight for her to ___ deeply. (breathe)
126. To move, or even ___ would have destroyed the moment. (breathe)
127. She forced herself to ___, or she'd pass out. (breathe)
128. He effected / affected the change in the existing system.
129. 2. The bees were buzzing amongst / among the flowers
130. 3. The study also examined the effect / affect of Head Start programs that use a different
131. educational approach.
132. 4. This greatly effected / affected his mental state that evening.
133. 5. The audience was deeply affected / effected .
134. Similar tendencies are found amongst / among his followers.
135. Among / Amongst the paintings was an original Picasso.
136. This casual dining tavern boasts the freshest ingredients and a gracious wait
137. staff staff set amongst / among one of Williamsburg's most historic taverns.
138. The medicine had an immediate affect / effect .
139. Divide it amongst / among the poor people who need it so badly
140. The last thing she wanted was rivalry amongst / among the men.
141. I hope this won't effect / affect our friendship.
142. The computer is gray/grey. -both right
143. The gray/grey elephant was 2 tons. -both right
144. The walrus was sitting in the grey/gray sand. -both right
145. Why buy the grey/gray van when you can buy the blue one? -both right

146. In the corner of the room there was a grey/gray duffle bag. -both right
147. The building across the street is grey/gray. -both right
148. This could imply/infer that there still was some remnants left of the artifact. -imply
149. It took no very great mental effort to infer/imply that the window was broken. -infer
150. This would imply/infer that the sasquatch has been here. -imply
151. Nobody could infer/imply the mastermind of the bank heist. -infer
152. Having said this, the abbe bowed to imply/ infer he wished to pursue his studies. -imply
153. As the universe shews wisdom and goodness, we infer/imply wisdom and goodness. -infer
154. I asked my teacher to give me some (advice/advise) on the homework.
155. Disneyland is quite filled with (tortuous/ torturous). rides.
156. My (advice/advise) is worthless at this point.
157. Can I (advice/advise) you on the current situation.
158. She tried to (advice/advise) me to get the blue car.
159. Breaking my foot is a tortuous/ torturous). feeling.
160. Can you please give me some (advice/advise) on what shoe I should get.
161. Cutting my fingers was the most tortuous/ torturous). experience in my life.
162. I (advice/advise) to stay away from the problem.
163. Twizzlers are a very( tortuous/ torturous) food.
164. That pain I felt that day was ( tortuous/ torturous).
165. Can I give you my( tortuous/ torturous) real quick?
166. I love the ( tortuous/ torturous) roads up the mountain.
167. It was the worst (defense, defence) he could have used.
168. Her (defense, defence) was weak and inapt but she attained her object.
169. Attack is the best form of (defense, defence).
170. In her (defense,defence) , she thought I was trying to kill her.
171. The best (defense, defence) is a good offence
172. The land was flat, giving no scope for (defense, defence).
173. When did you (immigrate, emigrate) to our country?
174. Many Mexicans illegally (immigrate, emigrate) into the U.S. from Mexico.
175. They plan to (immigrate, emigrate) to Finland next.
176. They had no choice but to (immigrate, emigrate).
177. They are going to (immigrate, emigrate) to America.
178. They are going to (immigrate, emigrate) to the United States.
179. Clarice made a social (gaffe/gaff) when she wore jeans to a formal event.
180. The blogger made a (gaffe/gaff) when he referred to the football player by another athlete's name.
181. Hanging the (gaffe/gaff) down can spill the wind out of the sail.
182. Captain Dang successfully hooked the (gaffe/gaff) deep into its tail and managed to get the tail up to level of the deck.
183. After the actress tripped over her dress, she realized millions of people had seen her (gaffe/gaff).

184. A quick, well-aimed move with the (gaffe/gaff), and 54 inches of hammered chrome and green came over the side.
185. The horde/hoards of people came rushing inside the store to buy everything on sale.
186. There were hoards/hordes of birds coming from the north to the south due to the seasons.
187. The horde/hoard of migrants coming to America are coming here for various reasons.
188. When the reporter asked the worker about the working conditions, the worker illicit/elicited his opinion about it.
189. The people had to elicit/illicit their opinions about the inequality treatment they get at work.
190. In the United States, you have the right the illicit/elicite your opinion.
191. Some people are rather afraid to elicit/illicit their opinions because of multiple reasons.
192. Even with the gaff/gaffe in it, it took another hour to drag the fish into the back of the boat.
193. After the actress tripped over her dress, she realized millions of people had seen her gaff/gaffe.
194. A mountaineer must learn to stand the gaff/gaffe.
195. This yacht has the gaff/gaffe rig and leeboards of the period.
196. Because of the quarterback's gaff/gaffe, our team lost the big game.
197. The blogger made a gaff/gaffe when he referred to the football player by another athlete's name.
198. . Researchers say that it's easier to loose/lose weight if you eat three square meals a day.
199. My pants were a bit loose/lose around my waist, so I needed to find a belt to hold them up before I left the house
200. I usually hate trying to open caps on bottles, but thankfully the one on my drink was pretty loose/lose and came off easily.
201. The newspaper began to loose/lose readers when it dispensed with one of its most popular writers.
202. We very often only come to appreciate someone or our relationship with them when we loose/lose them.
203. Loose/lose clothing gives you greater freedom of movement.