

Dear parents and students,

for this week 05/04 – 05/08:

1. You can find in Archie Resources the answer key for the listening part for all units.
2. On Thursday there will be the final vocabulary test
3. On Friday there will be the final reading comprehension test
4. There will be no Homework for this week due to the final tests, just a pop-quiz about the upcoming final vocabulary test or maybe two depending on the needs of the students.

Thank you for your cooperation
