

Homework for May 11- 15

ALL STUDENTS ARE TO COMPLETE THE ASSIGNMENTS BELOW. NO READING PLUS THIS WEEK!

Monday - This week we will be preparing for a TKAM test to be given on Thursday and Friday. The test will be an open book test. In preparation for the test, do the following.

- Use flags or stickies in order to mark certain chapters. This will make it easier for you to locate information on the day of the test. Reread through the following parts of the book listed below. Mark the following chapters and label them as follows:
  - Mrs. Dubose's chapter
  - The cartoon of Atticus-Montgomery Advertiser
  - Calpurnia takes kids to Church
  - "Sin to Kill a Mockingbird" explanation
  - Mad Dog
  - Chapter 9, when Atticus speaks to Scout about fighting.
  - Tate testifies
  - Bob Ewell testifies
  - Mayella testifies
  - Tom Robinson testifies

Tuesday - Review your notes on the Judicial System, courtroom layout and important vocabulary, landmark cases, amendments, and roles in a trial. Study. If your notes are in your notebook and not in your book, transfer them to your book, either on the covers or pages that may have space. Make sure you mark them so that you can easily find them.

Wednesday - Make sure you know the following vocabulary:

- Verdict
- Acquittal
- Conviction
- Solicitor
- Defendant
- Plaintiff
- Prosecutor
- Burden of proof
- Beyond a Reasonable Doubt
- Unanimous decision
- Cross-examination
- Corroborating Evidence
- Subpena
- Civil case vs. Criminal - be prepared to explain the difference

Thursday - Friday

No Homework. ENJOY THE LONG WEEKEND!
